Church - Centre Apostolique Malien (CAM)

Rom 15:20-21

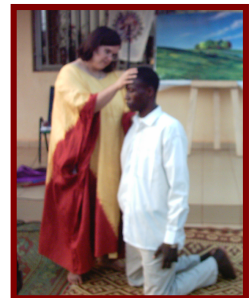

After the Lord showed us the perfect place to have church, He arranged everything for me to move there at the end of October 2004. On November 28 we had our first official service there with an attendance of about 80 people. That very day was also my (spiritual son) Simeon's first birthday and I was a proud Mom, baptizing him in the course of the service. Simeon has become my right hand, a fiery full-time evangelist with a strong prophetic gifting and high calling.

Every Sunday afternoon, we gather to praise the Lord, listen to God's word and have a prayer time. Right now, I'm the one doing everything (in French, being interpreted into Bambara); pray for a strong local team to be raised up!

Mt 10:7-8

Street Kids

On December 25 we had about 80 street kids to celebrate Christmas with us. They received a meal, heard the Christmas story and the gospel, and received clothes and toys as a gift. The following day, many of them came to our service, and several of them gave their lives to Jesus.

Jam 1:27

God is calling us to these kids, who keep coming back, asking for food, medical help and help to find their families to return home. The latter is hardly possible, since their families have given them away to Muslim teachers (who mistreat them, so they run away) and just send them back, therefore continuing the vicious circle.

Bible College

Ecole Biblique de Foi au Mali

On November 25 EBFM started its classes with three students - Simeon, Emmanuel and Simon-Pierre - who are eager to learn and grow and graduate in about two years. I teach them every Thursday (two classes).

Simon-Pierre, Siméon, Emmanuel

High School

I still teach German at Biya High School, but only 6 hours a week. A lot of good contacts are being established with students, and some come to services.

English Class

More and more people want to join us for the English class, eager to learn English. About half of them is Christian, and half Muslim, who still learn the Christian vocabulary and "endure" the weekly worship song.

Movie Night

Every Friday night we show Christian movies, projected onto a big screen in the garden - from Old Testament biographies to Matthew and Acts to modern Christian stories. People LOVE those movies!

Miracles, Signs & Wonders

We have seen a good number of people give their lives to the Lord. We've also seen healing miracles - Jesus often healing Muslims to show His love to them. Other times the Lord uses Simeon to speak prophetically into people's lives, causing the Muslims to ask, "How did you know that?" - another opportunity to speak of the love of God. Please pray for an increase in signs, wonders & miracles, and that those coming to the Lord will become strong believers.

Short/Mid-Term Goals

- Discipleship (ALPHA course) and literacy class.
- Buying a car (required for nearly all the following). (A few cars will become available around March.)
- Finding a piece of land to buy.
- Building a church and a home for the kids on that property.
- Reaching out into the villages where they have never heard the gospel.
- Founding a local NGO (humanitarian organization).
- Bringing in food to the starving and medical supplies to the sick.
- Finding partners in ministry to support us with much-needed prayer and finances (we're hundreds of €//$ short in our monthly budget).

Serving our glorious Bridegroom King with an overflowing heart of love - knowing Him and making Him known.
